

STUDENT CONSENT TO DISCLOSE EDUCATION RECORDS

(To be completed by student)

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law that protects the privacy of student education records created or maintained by a school that receives federal funds. Students who attend Western Piedmont Community College (WPCC) retain the right of privacy in their education records. WPCC may provide access to a student's education records to a third party if the student provides written consent using this form.

While enrolled in curriculum courses at WPCC, I hereby give my voluntary consent to disclose or allow review of the following education records: (Check all that Apply)
